Another important society event was a dinner and reception given by Mrs. Astor. During the soirce, Miss Doige, an American singer, and Signor Pontecorvo, an Italian tenor, entertained the guests.

No section of Paris society welcomed the advent of fine weather this week more than the members of the smart lawn tennisciub which has its headquarters on the He Pricaux, a pretty island in the Scine, near Paris.

This week constituted a virtual opening of the season, as it has hitherto been impossible, the weather having prevened all but enthusiasis from going there.

The intercollegiate lawn tennis championship this week attracted quite a number of smart women and men, who retained tables for the first dinners and dance next Wednesday.

Chartran's beautiful residence since their return from New York was extremely brilliant. The distinguished guests included Mrs. Cowles, a sister of President Roosevelt, and Miss Roosevelt, her niece: Prince Roland Bonaparte, Mrs. Edward Stern, Messrs. Knight, Beach and Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Grau and Mr. and Mrs. Lazare Weiler.

Mrs. George Ingraham gave a successful amateur theatrical, at which her daughter appeared to advantage in Weilhac and Halevy's "L'Ingenue" and Tristan Bernard's "L'Anglaise tel qu'on le parle" The audience included Mmes. Griswold, Gray, Douglas. Thomson, Palmer, Van Dusen, Reed, the Comte and Comtesse de Langier-Villars, Miss Porter, Miss Burden, Miss Randolph, Mr. Bradley Martin, Jr., Mr. Hill, the Comtesse de Bonvouloir and the Comtesse de Louvencourt.

Nobody coming to Paris misses a drive to the Engatelle Polo Grounds, which are excellent, excepting that the stand is so placed that the setting sun glares in the spectators' eyes. Among the fair visitors this week have been the Princesse Murat and the Comtesse de Montgomery.

Mr. "Tommy" Wright, a popular player, is still ill with influenza.

One of the swellest and most enjoyable fetes of the Paris season is that which the members of the Polo Club give at the moment the season it at its height. This year the fete will be held June 12 and the proceeds devoted to two charities.

The entertainment will consist of a topical "Revue" written by the Marquis de Prancaise and Mile. Marguerite Deval is the pipuipal exponents; also tableaux vivants, in which the pretiest Paris actresses will be seen.

A novel feature of the tableaux will be singing notably that by Mile. Hatto of the USE CUTICURA SOAP, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, the great skin cure, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin of infants and children, for rashes, itchings, and chafings, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Millions of Women use Cuticura Soap in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and excoriations, for too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, especially mothers. No other medicated soap is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines in ONE SOAP at ONE PRICE, the BEST skin and complexion soap and the BEST toilet and baby soap in the world.

COMPLETE EXTERNAL AND INTERNAL TREATMENT FOR EVERY HUMOUR, Consisting of Certicula Solid (Sec.), to cleanse the skin of crusts and scale, and soften the thickened cuticle; Cutticula Obstress (Sec.), to instantly allay inching, inflammation, and irritation, and soothe and heal; and Cutticular Resolvent Philis (Sec.), to cool THE SET SI, and cleanse the blood. A Single Set is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring, inching, burning, and scaly skin, ecalp, and blood humours, with loss of hair, when all clee fails. have been raised on all sides at what is desired the extravagant charge of $10 a head for this luncheon. Several peers have declared that nothing on earth shall induce them to pay this sum for the luncheon, as it can't possibly cost so much. Then, too, great offense has been given by the intimation given to the peers to ap-ply for permission to attend the House of Lords on this occasion, when it is an established fact that they have a right to be present. There will be a meeting on Monday night, when the whole subject will be brought up and discussed. Stand Business Overdone.

Cheap seats, however, have been in good demand and, owing to the length of the procession, unless the owners of expensive stands reduce prices, the stands are likely to be empty. In St. James street and Pail Mail, rooms overlooking the line of both processions are still held at $2.50 to $5.60 for two days, but I notice that most of them are still to let.

It is on the south side of the river, however, that the most interesting hunt for places from which to you the procession

Parties of smartly dressed men and women are to be seen going in at narnow, dingy doorways, whose appearance not even a house agent would describe as inviting. After climbing three or four flights of gloomy, ill-smelling stairs, they come probably upon a small, badly ventilated room, for the use of which, after some bargaining, they will probably pay $50 or $75.

A curbous sight was witnessed in the neighborhood of the Abbey and the Horse Guards on Wednesday, when some 20 stallwart guardsmen, in working clothen were marched up on the stands being erected by the Government. When the stands were completely filled, at a given signal each man shouted loud and sat down hard, all in unison. This was not, as might be imagined, a new mode of physical culture, but was a practical demonstration of the strength of the stands.
